1. POLICY INTENT

The purpose of this Policy is to protect the integrity of Touch Football through the prevention, detection, and enforcement of rules relating to the manipulation of Touch Football's sports competitions and associated illicit sports betting activity. Through this Policy, Touch Football Australia aims to ensure that its core values, good reputation and positive behaviours and attitudes are maintained.

2. DEFINITIONS

In this Policy the following words have the corresponding meaning:

Activity means a sporting contest, match, competition, event, or activity (including training), whether on a one-off basis or as part of a series, league, or competition, sanctioned or organised by a Relevant Organisation.

Administrator means an individual who has a role in the administration or operation of a Touch Football Organisation or TFA, including owners, directors, committee members and other persons.

Athlete means a person who is registered with or entitled to participate in an Activity.

Benefit means any advantage and is not limited to property¹.

Club means any club that enters a Team to participate in an Activity.

Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy means the policy adopted by Touch Football Australia for the handling and resolution of allegations regarding Prohibited Conduct.

Contractor means any person or organisation engaged to provide services for, or on behalf of, a Relevant Organisation. This includes agents, advisers and subcontractors of a Relevant Organisation and Employees, officers, Volunteers, and agents of the Contractor or subcontractor.

Employee means a person employed by a Relevant Organisation.

Inside Information means any information connected to the conduct, management or organisation of a sporting event that is not generally available and if it were generally available, the information, would, or would be likely to, influence a person's decision to bet on the sporting event or in making any other betting decision.

Member means a member of a Relevant Organisation, including:

- (a) Member Organisation, which means each company or incorporated association that is a member of Touch Football Australia - including each of:
 - i. NSWTA and QTA, as defined in this Policy; and
 - ii. Affiliates, being local entities that conduct or administer Touch Football competitions;
- (b) Individual Members, meaning a natural person admitted to Touch Football Australia as an individual member and who is also a registered or licenced financial member of Touch Football Australia, NSWTA, QTA and/or an Affiliate and includes Participants; and
- (c) Life Members, being a natural person admitted to life membership of Touch Football Australia.

National Integrity Framework means the National Integrity Framework as developed by Sport Integrity Australia consisting of the following five policies:

- (a) Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy;
- (b) Competition Manipulation and Sport Gambling Policy;

¹ A benefit can include, but not limited to; profiting from betting; obtaining an easier draw in the next round of competition; prize money; gifts; winning a title; or ranking points.

- (c) Improper Use of Drugs and Medicine Policy;
- (d) Member Protection Policy; and
- (e) Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy.

NSWTA means the New South Wales Touch Association Inc. being the representative member for Affiliates and regions within that jurisdiction.

Participant means a person who participates, including but not only as registered volunteers, officials, coaches, players or referees, in a Touch Football competition organised, controlled or sanctioned by the Company, NSWTA, QTA or an Affiliate.

Policy means this Competition Manipulation and Sport Gambling Policy and any appendices.

QTA means the Queensland Touch Association Inc. being the representative member for Affiliates and regions within that jurisdiction.

Relevant Organisation means any of the following organisations:

- (a) Touch Football Australia;
- (b) Member Organisation – see 'Member';
- (c) Touch Football Organisation, which means and includes:
 - iii. Member Organisations – see 'Member';
 - iv. Clubs, which means any club that enters a Team to participate in an Activity; and
 - v. Authorised Providers, which means any non-Member organisations authorised to conduct Activities sanctioned by Touch Football Australia or a Member Organisation;

Relevant Person means any of the following persons:

- (a) Individual Member – see 'Member';
- (b) Participant;
- (c) Employee;
- (d) Contractor;
- (e) Administrator;
- (f) Volunteer; or
- (g) Any other individual who has agreed to be bound by the National Integrity Framework and/or the Relevant Policies.

Touch Football means the sport of Touch, as governed by Touch Football Australia and Federation of International Touch (FIT) from time to time.

Team means a collection or squad of Athletes, registered with a Relevant Organisation or entitled to participate in an Activity. Use of Inside Information means using Inside Information for betting purposes.

Volunteer means any person engaged by a Relevant Organisation in any capacity who is not otherwise an Employee or Contractor, including directors and office holders, coaches, officials, referees, administrators and team and support personnel.

Wagering Service Provider means any company or other undertaking that promotes, brokers, arranges or conducts any form of wagering activity in relation to Touch Football.

Any capitalised term not defined in this Policy has the meaning given to it in the Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy.

3. JURISDICTION

This Policy applies to:

- (a) Relevant Persons; and
- (b) Relevant Organisations.

4. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

4.1 Prohibited Conduct

A Relevant Person commits a breach of this Policy when they, either alone or in conjunction with another or others, engage in any of the following conduct:

- (a) Participate (whether by act or omission) in improperly altering the result or the course of an Activity in order to remove all or part of the unpredictable nature of the Activity to obtain a Benefit for themselves or others including by²:
 - i. the direct, pre-meditated or planned interference with the natural course of an Activity or element of an Activity³;
 - ii. providing modified or false information related to an athlete's identity or personal information;
 - iii. intentionally modifying playing surfaces, equipment or athlete's physiology to improperly influence the natural course of the event⁴;
- (b) Place, or facilitate or assist with the making of⁵, a bet, or enter into any other form of financial speculation, on any Activity, or on any incident or occurrence in an Activity, which they have a direct or indirect connection to⁶. For the avoidance of doubt:
 - i. any bets placed by a betting syndicate or group, such as a 'punter's club', of which the Relevant Person is a member;
 - ii. an interest in any bet, including having someone else place a bet on their behalf; or
 - iii. allowing another person to place a bet using a Relevant Person's account,shall be treated as if the bet was placed by the Relevant Person as an individual
- (c) Disclosure of Inside Information or Use of Inside Information, other than as required as part of their official duties;
- (d) Accept, request, seek, offer, or provide a Benefit to incite, cause or contribute to any breach of this Policy, or which might reasonably be expected to bring the Relevant Person, Relevant Organisation, or Touch Football into disrepute;
- (e) Facilitate, assist, aid, abet, encourage, induce, cover-up or be complicit in any Prohibited Conduct;
- (f) Agree, conspire, plan or attempt to engage in any conduct which would be Prohibited Conduct if successful; or

² 'Improperly' in this context means not in accordance with standard sets of behaviour accepted in the participant's sport. Some practices in a sport may, when applying a strict interpretation without context, be seen as Prohibited Conduct, however, given the behaviour is culturally acceptable among participants and spectators of the sport, this conduct is, therefore, deemed not 'improper'. Refer to Appendix A: Examples of Prohibited Conduct for examples of acceptable and improper practices.

³ Examples may include, but not limited to, intentionally conceding points, pre-arranging the outcome of a competition, deliberate underperformance (also known as 'tanking') in any manner (through selections or not playing to a person's merits), influencing athlete selections and strategy, or intentional unfair or incorrect officiating. Refer to Appendix A: Examples of Prohibited Conduct for examples.

⁴ For the avoidance of doubt, this does not include any matters dealt with under other relevant policies relating to anti-doping, eligibility, gender identity or selection criteria.

⁵ Facilitating or assisting includes communicating in any way, including but not limited to in-person communication, using a mobile phone, computer or other electronic device, information that might give another person an unfair advantage if they were to engage in betting related to that information, other than as required as part of their official duties.

⁶ For the purposes of part 4.1(b), the words 'directly or indirectly connected to an Activity' are to be given the broadest possible meaning. Refer to Appendix B: Examples of Direct and Indirect Connections for a Relevant Person for examples of direct and indirect connections.

- (g) Fail to promptly report, to the fullest extent of their knowledge (or of which they ought to have been reasonably aware) to the Touch Football Australia or responsible Relevant Organisation if they:
 - (i) are interviewed as a suspect, charged, or arrested by a law enforcement body in respect of conduct that falls within the definition of Prohibited Conduct⁷;
 - (ii) have been approached by another person, whether or not that person is bound by this policy, to engage in Prohibited Conduct;
 - (iii) know or reasonably suspect, that another person has engaged in Prohibited Conduct, or has been approached to engage in Prohibited Conduct;
 - (iv) have, or is aware or reasonably suspects that another person has, received actual or implied threats of any nature in relation to any past or proposed Prohibited Conduct; or
 - (v) have or obtain any new knowledge or suspicion regarding any possible Prohibited Conduct under this Policy, even if the Relevant Person's prior knowledge or suspicion has already been reported.

5. REPORTING AND COMPLAINTS

- (a) Allegations of Prohibited Conduct under this Policy should be submitted to Touch Football Australia.
- (b) Allegations of Prohibited Conduct under this Policy will be managed in accordance with the Touch Football Australia Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy.
- (c) Notification by a Relevant Person under clause 4.1(g) may be made verbally or in writing by the Relevant Person and may be made anonymously if there is a genuine concern of reprisal. A Relevant Person who makes a report anonymously is responsible for keeping a record that will allow them to confirm that they have met their obligations under clause 4.1(g).

6. OTHER MATTERS

6.1 Education

- (a) In order to prevent breaches of this policy, build positive behaviours in sport and protect participants from competition manipulation and associated sports gambling threats, Touch Football Australia is responsible for developing and implementing an education plan addressing the content and subject matter of this Policy.
- (b) Touch Football Australia should engage Sport Integrity Australia to assist in the design, implementation, and maintenance of the education plan and to determine priority education groups and associated interventions.
- (c) A Relevant Organisation may, from time to time, direct certain Participants to undertake education, which will be relevant and proportionate to their level of participation in Touch Football and the associated integrity risks.
- (d) Sport Integrity Australia has developed a range of education resources and training material to support the National Integrity Framework which can be found here.

6.2 Information Sharing

- (a) A Relevant Organisation may share information (including Personal Information as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)) at any time relating to Relevant Persons with Wagering Service Providers, law enforcement agencies, government agencies or other sporting organisations to prevent, identify and investigate alleged Prohibited Conduct, or to comply with relevant state and territory or national regulation or legislation, subject to the Privacy Act.
- (b) A Relevant Organisation may share information they receive relating to competition manipulation and sports betting with Sport Integrity Australia to enable Sport Integrity Australia to effectively perform its functions.

⁷ This does not apply if the reporting is not permitted by law.

- (c) In sharing information, Relevant Organisations will remain bound by the legal obligations contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Relevant Organisation's Privacy Policy.
- (d) Relevant Persons must disclose information to Touch Football Australia regarding all of their commercial agreements, interests, and connections with Wagering Service Providers. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not include the disclosure of accounts that Relevant Persons may hold with Wagering Service Providers.
- (e) A Relevant Organisation may request information from Wagering Service Providers to identify incidents of suspicious or prohibited betting transactions (including single or multiple betting transactions or market fluctuations) that may indicate or tend to indicate that Relevant Persons have engaged in Prohibited Conduct under this Policy.
- (f) To enable the Wagering Service Provider to provide such information, a Relevant Organisation may, from time to time and subject to any terms and conditions imposed by a Relevant Organisation (including in relation to confidentiality and privacy), provide to Wagering Service Providers details of Relevant Persons who are precluded by this Policy from engaging in Prohibited Conduct.
- (g) All requests for information or provision of information by a Relevant Organisation or a Wagering Service Provider shall be kept strictly confidential and shall not be divulged to any third party or otherwise made use of, except where required by law or by this Policy, is permitted by the responsible Relevant Organisation or Wagering Service Provider, or where information is already in the public domain other than because of a breach of this Policy.

6.3 Gambling Sponsorship within Touch Football

- (a) Touch Football Australia may enter into a commercial arrangement with a Wagering Service Provider from time to time, subject to any applicable legislative requirements.
- (b) A Relevant Organisation may enter into a commercial arrangement with a Wagering Service Provider with the written consent of Touch Football Australia. Such consent may be withheld at the discretion of Touch Football Australia where the proposed commercial arrangement:
 - (i) conflicts with an existing commercial arrangement made between Touch Football Australia and a Wagering Service Provider(s); and/or
 - (ii) is with a Wagering Service Provider with whom Touch Football Australia has not entered into an integrity agreement as required under any applicable state/territory gambling legislation; and/or
 - (iii) is, in the NSO's opinion, contrary to the interests of Touch Football.
- (c) Subject to clause 6.3(b), a Relevant Person or Relevant Organisation must not:
 - (i) enter into any form of commercial arrangement with a Wagering Service Provider;
 - (ii) induce, advertise or promote betting on an Activity, without the prior permission of Touch Football Australia; or
 - (iii) promote or endorse a Wagering Service Provider.

APPENDIX A: EXAMPLES OF PROHIBITED CONDUCT

1. For the purposes of clause 4.1(a)i. of this Policy, examples of Prohibited Conduct whereby a Relevant Person participates (whether by act or omission) in improperly altering the result or the course of an Activity in order to remove all or part of the unpredictable nature of the Activity to obtain a Benefit for themselves or others include, but are not limited to:
 - (a) intentionally conceding tries;
 - (b) pre-arranging the outcome, or the course of a competition, including through influencing athlete selections and strategy;
 - (c) deliberate underperformance (also known as 'tanking') in any manner (through selections or not playing to a person's merits), including for the intention to progress to an easier draw, or for the intention of benefiting a 'friendly' opponent;
 - (d) intentional unfair or incorrect officiating.

2. However, 'improperly' in this context means not in accordance with standard sets of behaviour accepted in Touch Football. Some practices in Touch Football may, when applying a strict interpretation without context, be seen as Prohibited Conduct; however, that conduct is in accordance with standard sets of behaviour accepted in Touch Football. The following does not constitute Prohibited Conduct, include, but are not limited to:
 - (a) selecting specific athletes for a qualification event to maximise entry quotas of the associated club or representative team/squad;
 - (b) resting players/athletes for a legitimate competitive objective such as the development of the team or other players, or the management of player fatigue or injuries;
 - (c) resting players/athletes from a match or race of a competition to maximise a team performance in the finals; or
 - (d) not selecting a player for an entire series or tour to provide them with an extended rest period in preparation for a future series or tour.

APPENDIX B: EXAMPLES OF DIRECT AND INDIRECT CONNECTIONS FOR A RELEVANT PERSON

1. A Relevant Person has a direct connection to an Activity if they are:
 - (a) an Athlete participating/competing in the Activity;
 - (b) a coach or support personnel of a Team or Athlete participating in the Activity;
 - (c) a trainer/para-medical of a Team or Athlete participating in the Activity;
 - (d) a referee, umpire, technical official, judge, or official, of the Activity appointed by a Relevant Organisation;
 - (e) An Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer involved in the organisation of the Activity.

2. A Relevant Person has an indirect connection to an Activity if (but not limited to):
 - (a) the Activity is a single race, match, or competition the Relevant Person does not directly participate in; however, it is a part of a series, tournament, or season competition, of which the Relevant Person participates in, or is directly connected to. For example, if a Relevant Person's team competes in the state Touch Football series which involves another nine teams in a 10-round draw, that Relevant Person is prohibited from betting on any match in the entire state Touch Football series.
 - (b) they are an Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer with a Relevant Organisation organising the Activity. For example, if the Relevant Person is an Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer of Touch Football Australia and the Touch Football Australia organises the national championships, the Relevant Person is prohibited from betting on any competition, match, or race of that national championships.
 - (c) the Activity includes participants competing on behalf of a Relevant Organisation and the Relevant Person is an Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer of that Relevant Organisation. For example, if a regional representative team is competing at the state championships, an Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer of the relevant regional association is prohibited from betting on any Activity at those state championships.

For the avoidance of doubt, simply being an Individual Member of a Relevant Organisation does not imply an indirect relationship to the Activity. For example, an Individual Member of a Member Organisation, in the absence of any direct or indirect connection, is not prohibited from betting on an Activity that includes state or national Participants.
